THE HOSPITAL

It's another building you hardly noticed before--

Until one day you find yourself inside.

Lying there helplessly--

Or sitting and standing and pacing and waiting and hoping.

You know it's not just another building--it's more like a church.

Where no one, except death, is ever turned away.

Where life enters timidly, and is coaxed to remain

Where men and women spend their lives saving the lives of people they never saw before.

Where who you are and what you are seem rather unimportant.

Where forgotten things--like the miracle of opening and closing your hand--becomes new and exciting.

This is a hospital--and when you leave you may forget all about it.

But it never forgets you. It stands there ready,
day and night, to help whoever needs help.

"THINK"

One man sees the forest as only
A jumbled mass of trees.
Another paints it on canvas
The eyes of mankind to please.
One man sees a threat in the ocean--
Regards it with fear and with scorn;
Another charts it with trade routes
And a thing called commerce is born.
Mines, bridges, tunnels and buildings
Whate'er man has done that may be,
Began, first, as but an idea
In the mind of one who could see
Beyond the horizon of doubting
Beyond petty drawbacks men stress
And as a result of this thinking
He earned his reward of success.
So when you are tempted to give up
Or from life's assignments would shrink,
Rely on the power within you --
All problems will yield, if you THINK!
