2018

Care Transitions for Hospital to Home: Ideal Discharge Planning

Jeanne Friebe
St. Cloud Hospital, CentraCare Health, friebej@centracare.com

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.centracare.com/nursing_posters

Recommended Citation
Friebe, Jeanne, "Care Transitions for Hospital to Home: Ideal Discharge Planning" (2018). Nursing Posters. 84.
https://digitalcommons.centracare.com/nursing_posters/84
Purpose Statement

To increase patient satisfaction with the discharge process based on patient’s readiness; for patients with uncomplicated vaginal and cesarean birth through the application of the IDEAL model.

Synthesis of Evidence

C Grade

D Grade

Team Members

Jeanne Friebe, BSN, RNC-LRN, IBCLC (lead)
Jeanie Olson, BSN, RNC-OB - FBC Core Charge
Heather Klein, BSN,CLC - FBC Core Charge
Laurn Johnson, BSN, CLC - FBC Staff Nurse
Monica Pelzer, BSN - FBC Staff Nurse
Katie Lauer, BSN - FBC Staff Nurse
Melissa Bruns, BSN, IBLC, RNC - Inpatient OB
Dr. Jennifer Martinson
Rebecca Wertish, NP

Pre Survey Comment – “From the time we were told we could go home and walked out the door, it was 2-4 hours. It took way too long.”

Post Survey Comment – “We were given a timeline and expected time of discharge and we left right on time. Doctors and Nurses were courteous of our time and made the process as quick as can be.”

References

